

On one of life's most difficult days... you have to make some of life's most difficult decisions.

Who do I notify?
Did she wear eyeglasses?
Will there be a visitation?
Is there music to be played at the visitation?
Can I locate my loved ones discharge papers?

To whom will the flag be presented?
What was my mother's maiden name?
Will there be a visitation?
Is there music to be played at the visitation?
What about her wedding ring?

Are we to pay the organist or soloist?

The easier conversation is about protecting the ones you love by:

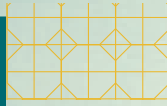

Reflecting...on what's most important in life.

Recording...your wishes and options so loved ones know what you want.

Supporting...by funding your plan ahead of time for peace of mind.

Sharing...your plan so your life can be celebrated as you want.

How do I start?

Dignity
PLANNING

The Dignity Planning program makes it easy.

1. Start by answering the most basic questions about how you would like family and friends to celebrate your life.
2. Next, use the program to help you communicate your plan to your designated friends and loved ones.
3. Over time, add the details to make your service uniquely yours.
